Aries' Year Ahead

Happy Birthday Aries! As your birthday year begins a New Moon eclipse occurs in your sign Aries, your solar 1st house. You feel like taking risks and throwing off the shackles. Bungee jumping, parachuting, race car driving will all seem like a lot of fun this year. Along with this Mercury retrograde in your sign too suggests a refinement may be necessary before you can proceed into your fantastic future! Although you might feel like throwing caution to the wind and taking a big risk, you are held back by retrograde Mercury! Anytime any planet transits your first house, your individuality and characteristics come under scrutiny. This is where you define who you are and what part of you do other people get to see.

April's Planets & You

Happy Spring Equinox! The New Moon on April 8th is a solar eclipse occurring at 19 degrees Aries. If you are familiar with your chart, you will want to check and see if you have any planets or house cusps at or about 19-20 degrees. This new Moon indicates new beginnings that we are trying to get off the ground. However, with Mercury retrograde (until April 12th) the North Node and Venus, all in the sign of Aries also, we are slowed down a bit. Expect that your new plans will get off the ground (be they business, or personal), but with a large dose of hesitation. I say hesitation because Mercury retrograde forces each one of us to think through our plans more carefully and not rush into a new situation without full knowledge of what we might be getting into or taking on! It's a bit different than let's say, Saturn energy that causes blatant delays or an over analyzing Virgo energy! In April, retrograde Mercury affects our thought process; we are thinking more thoroughly than Mercury in Aries usually allows for! Once Mercury goes direct on April 20, 2005, we are free to zoom into uncharted territories with vigor!

The Full Moon Eclipse in the sign of Scorpio (4 degrees Scorpio) on April 24th forces us to look at the blockages in our life. Here is where the emotionally fragile people are separated from the emotionally strong. If you are emotionally weak, you definitely will have a hard time with this full moon. If you are emotionally strong, you will zone in on what is getting in your way and begin to chip away at blockages that prevent you from getting what you desire. The Sun in Taurus, Full moon in Scorpio, is referring to our desires and what is keeping us from attaining our desires. We are reminded how short life is, and how useless it is to live life unhappily. Be they out worn and ideas that shelter our lives from growth and our true potentials! What would really make you happy? Need more insight into these potentially life changing eclipses? Call 1-888-334-7785 to find out!

Changing Your Life! Part 2

This is part two to my first article on changing your life. With Saturn's transit in the sign of Cancer (the 4th house of endings and new beginnings), we all have the unique opportunity of walking away from things that are not working out for us currently and manifesting new realities, and getting back on our pre-destined paths. Saturn has gone direct by now and before he leaves Cancer, change something in your life! Each one of us right now has some part of our lives that we are not happy with, or some emotional pattern that we are repeating. Stop, reflect for a moment...on your current life. Are you continuously chasing the same type of romantic partner? Are you continuously working the same type of job and getting fired for no reason? Do you feel there's something better out there for you? You might not realize it, but when you were born, it was already "a given" who your soulmate was, where you would live and what your profession would be... What happened? You got planted here on earth, and immediately parents influenced you for good or bad, circumstances and choices entered your life for good and bad, and some of you got off your paths or lost your destinies! It happens! Do you ever wake up and think this doesn't feel like my life? Maybe you are living your boyfriend's life, your mother's life, your friend's life...but not yours. You have a unique opportunity to get everything back and stop the draining or stealing of your good life force energy!

Here's the formula...When God created the earth...he said "let there be light..." and there was light; the key here is that he spoke. He actually said something with his voice. If you go further on, he actually said after creating Adam and Eve... "ok you and I will create together." With your own words, you create each and every day. Pay attention to what you are saying. Take that concept a bit further and out loud say your desires... "I want to be happy. I need and want a good job and career; the job and career I was destined to have. I nullify and void, cancel out and make non-existent poverty in my life. I nullify and void anyone who has evil intentions against me and is causing me blockages."

Create a new path for yourself by positively saying what you want and what you don't. Writing it down is not always enough. Through your voice, for good or bad, you create your circumstances!

April's Horoscopes by Terry

ARIES (March 21-April 19): The New Moon eclipse in your sign is getting you ready for the potential life changing circumstances about to come your way. But wait, Mercury retrograde also in your sign suggests you need to make a few minor personality changes, the world is not yet ready for your individuality. Mercury retrograde suggests you tone it down a bit! If you don't, the universe will slow you down with some bad health, a cold, the flu etc...Watch yourself, your mannerisms, get rid of that twitch...it will hinder you; don't speak when others are speaking.... mind your manners. Got it? Attend to those few minor details before you let yourself loose on the world! Avoid taking risks for the time being!

LEO (July 23-August 22): Mars in your solar 7th house of relationships makes you more attractive to your partner and a potential mate! It's a good thing if you are single and available. Mars will definitely make you more popular. Not so good if you are married, committed and unhappy though. Mars can also aggravate and lead to arguments, fights, and breakups! The new Moon in your solar 9th house can give you some uncanny insights into others' futures, even your own. Pay attention to your intuition and dreams, as some could be very prophetic!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec.21): Watch what you say and how you say it to someone close. A negative word said in haste without thinking could cause a serious irrevocable rift between you and another! For single Sagittarians, a new love interest could be right around the corner; and for married Sagittarians, a new addition to the family. The Full Moon eclipse in the sign of Scorpio, your solar 12th house of self-undoing, brings to light some of your fears that you are subconsciously manifesting. It's ok to confront your fears...in fact that's the only way to purge them from your life!

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Love and romantic encounters are highlighted this month for you. There could be something standing in the way of you getting this person however. The two of you could come from different backgrounds, cultures, or you could be separated by distance. Self-sacrifice is not enough though, a change is needed. Put aside dead ideas, outworn modes of living, in a very structured world that keeps you unfulfilled. Don't pine away in seclusion, hiding your deep sadness from others. Make a change, take a bold step forward. Let someone know how you feel! If you don't, you may lose this person!

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): The new Moon in your solar 8th house of rebirth and change foretells of a desire to change your life on account of a relationship. Maybe you are thinking of moving to another state to be with someone you've met and fell in love with. Retrograde Mercury your ruler puts the brakes on moving too quickly though. Take your time, think through the details, before jumping into anything too quickly! Your future will change if you stop living your life for others; throw off the shackles of the life everyone else wants you to live!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 20): The Full Moon in your solar 5th house of love and romance suggests a flirtation and love interest that has some obstacles to overcome before it can actually begin. This might not be anything new as the nodes were recently in the sign of Scorpio last year, suggesting a carryover from last year. Scorpio deals with laying aside structure specifically outdated structure. Are you denying yourself love because it doesn't "fit into" your lifestyle or the lifestyle that has been prescribed to you by family, religion or culture? Love differently!

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): The new moon in Aquarius speaks of far reaching dreams and desires that you hope to make into a reality! Dare you believe that you just might catch the "golden ring" or the goose that laid the "golden egg." Everything is possible now! The next 3 months could be filled with lots of achievements if you just believe! Don't be disappointed if your ruling planet Mercury slows the pace a bit though, as you need time to refine the "dream" and sort out the details. Intriguing new friendships enter your life now. Find a place for the old and the new.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): The New Moon eclipse occurs in your solar 7th house of relationships, love and marriage. Even if you haven't met anyone yet this person is coming this year. Some Librans will get married, others will meet their soul mates! Still others who are suffering in bad marriages will get divorced. But where one door closes, another opens, and certainly Libra is one of those signs that is rarely alone! The Full Moon at the end of the month suggests that you now become even more spiritual; you are looking for a different type of sustenance! The kind that feeds the soul!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Mars in your sign gives you back your energy. Along with the sextile it will receive from the New Moon Eclipse, your popularity soars and everyone will want to communicate with you. Don't be surprised if your phone starts ringing off the hook! You may be chosen for some type of leadership role with your co-workers and a promotion could be in the works. Looking for a new job...not a problem now's the time! One word of caution though, slow down. Don't talk so fast; don't walk so fast either! You might be a little accident prone with all this energy at your disposal!

CANCER (June 21-July 22): The New Moon eclipse highlights your solar 10th house of career and reputation. When an eclipse occurs in an angular house such as this, a word of caution is advisable. The angular houses are where it's hard to hide our faults. They are just seen by others no matter what. In the 10th house, this could lead to a fall from grace. One day everyone respects you, the next day everyone is laughing at you. Mind yourself this month, and for heavens sake be humble and don't lord it over anyone! If you follow the rule of humbleness, you will reach great heights and great honor will be bestowed on you!

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov 21): It's going to be quite a month for Scorpios! Your co-ruling planet Mars transits Aquarius this month, your solar 4th house of endings and new beginnings! And the two eclipses that occur this month, both have far reaching effects on you. Slow down for a moment and think about what you want. It's time for a change. It's time to stop living your life according to others' expectations. Do a little soul searching and decide what you would like to be doing! New work could come as a result, and a more fulfilling job could be at your fingertips!

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 21): Get ready for some surprising events this month. With the planet in Uranus in your sign, the abrupt changes of the recent years can leave a poor Pisces feeling, well...estranged from everything tried and true. Hopefully, you've done your work and eliminated the baggage from your life; so a nice surprise awaits you when you least expect it. For some, the New Moon brings answers to personal prayers, and yet for other Pisces, a boost to your self confidence as those around you, friends and family alike, support you in all ways!
