Celebrity Predictions!

Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston! What really happened? The world was shocked by the announcement that Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston had split. I had predicted this a year ago in Woman's Own Magazine that Brad would give Jennifer the ultimatum to begin a family or he would begin looking elsewhere. It seems he has, right into the eyes of Angelina Jolie! Will Brad and Jennifer divorce or reconcile? I predict they will divorce and I predict a quick walk down the aisle for Brad Pitt that will surprise even Jennifer Aniston. Who will the lucky girl be? Brad was quite smitten with Angelina Jolie. According to her chart, Angelina was equally taken with Brad Pitt on the set of Ocean's 12 but, saddened by the fact that she had fallen for a married man. There could be a marriage in the future for Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie early 2006. Both will play it down by Brad being seen with other actresses until the appropriate time has passed. How is Jennifer Aniston taking all this? I feel she is in denial of Brad Pitt's feelings for another woman. In her heart she may feel he'll change his mind. She will be more devastated when he actually marries again.

February's Planets & You

Happy Valentine's Day! Is there love in your future?

The New Moon on Feb 8th in the sign of Aquarius makes a wide aspect to Jupiter in Libra. Some could take a friendship and turn it into love! The full moon on February 24th in the sign of Virgo opposes Uranus in Pisces providing an opportunity for past loves to reconcile! For those who are trying to break out of long standing situations or are just in desperate need of a change, this full moon has got star potential and unexpected good fortune destined for some of you...so check your charts for anything Mutable (Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius or Pisces) at 5 degrees!

Catastrophic events in the world: Saturn in Cancer?

Looking back to the last time Saturn transited the sign of Cancer 1944-1946 when our world was engaged in World War II and Nagasaki and Hiroshima were bombed with the world's first Nuclear Bomb...In the beginning, Japanese airplane pilots used to attack targets in planes as suicide bombers...sound familiar? This period and these kinds of threats will linger until Saturn leaves the sign of Cancer in July 2005. While the sign of Cancer to some is known as a passive, shy sign, it really is not. It is known for war and creating factions and fights. There are some signs that like war on a large scale and on a small scale. Cancer and Gemini both fit that description. Gemini likes to create havoc with talking and can rip your self-esteem to shreds with their words alone. Cancer and be physically violent with others. It makes sense then when Saturn enters these signs some of their negative attributes come under scrutiny.

Are we out of harm's way yet? No, there could still be more catastrophic events around the world until the end of summer when Saturn aspects Jupiter. Hopefully though it won't be as bad because of Jupiter's presence. Even knowing the future, should we concentrate on the bad things that could happen? Absolutely not! We can change our future, the world's future with prayer, thanksgiving and positive consciousness. Being thankful for what we are, what we have, what trauma we have been spared; this sends good positive energy into the universe and in reverse back down to us. Being negative, down condescending to our fellow humans, a burden to others, using others...sends that vibe right back to us...We can change any challenge that comes our way individually or collectively by...being good, seeing good, doing good!

Aquarius' Year Ahead

Happy Birthday Aquarius! As your birthday year begins, your ruling planet Uranus transits your solar 2nd house of money. As an Aquarian, you are probably less interested in the world's riches than most. Yours is an ideal world where everyone shares and is living in abundance. This very thought pattern attracts abundance to you this year. Initially having so much attention might scare you and leave you to wonder why does this person want to be my friend or what does he/she want from me. You are still in the process of integrating the new Uranus in Pisces' energy, so sometimes it will get a little scary!

February's Horoscopes by Terry

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): The New Moon in your sign along with a trio of other planets makes you lucky in love! If you are a single Aquarian, love will find you this month with possibly someone from a different culture, country or background. Some Aquarians may decide to go back to school, get a professional license in something or become more spiritual, but you will do it because you want or love to do it. Not because you have to. Everything you do now is out of a passion for the subject.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): As Mars transits the sign of Capricorn this month, your solar 8th house. Someone close, a boss, friend, lover gets too close for comfort. Prodding you, asking too many personal questions, examining your motives and pushing your limitations in possibly a disrespectful manner. It will get on your nerves by month's end, as you can only take so much of that kind of pressure. Create boundaries early on and don't "just be nice!" There's a discomfort with having to be intense about anything.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Your sign's ruler Venus is transiting Aquarius (your solar 5th house of Love and Romance) and conjuncts Neptune. Those aspects can make one pretty starry eyed. Will you be getting a lot of attention and admiration from family, friends and the opposite sex? Will you be looking absolutely radiant under Venus' rays? Will you attract a new love interest? Yes to all of the above! A new love possibly 5-7 years younger or older may come into your life by surprise or unexpectedly.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 21): Your need for more rest will become clear to you this month. A hectic schedule that keeps you going and leaves little time for pleasure will have you feeling a little burnt out. Don't let your imagination get the better of you; hold on tight to reality and by March your phobias and fears will be resolved. You are still haunted by past loves...let them go. The future holds the promise of an exciting new love that you might be more compatible with!

CANCER (June 21-July 22): As Valentine's Day rolls around this year, you may find yourself with too many love interests. While flirting can be almost therapeutic for Cancer natives and you may still be deciding on what kind of man you are actually looking for! Sift through the adulation carefully as some are superficial lovers who desire nothing more than to love you and leave you. Which I know...has its place too! The Letter "B" could be important this month.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov 21): Too many planets transiting in the fixed sign of Aquarius might make you a bit exhausted and frazzled. Be careful and alert as an abrupt ending could manifest in your life. An unexpected passing or death, perhaps of someone close? Many demands will be made on your time from work, business and family members, in addition to your normally heavy schedule. A move, remodel or addition to your abode will continue to take up your time. It is said that your home is a reflection of your soul...make sure it's all in good condition especially the floor under your feet.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): An ex-boyfriend or love desires to reconnect with you. While one part of you may be flattered, the other part of you may still want to be free. Set your goals high this month and let your dreams and aspirations soar! Fantastic new ideas and goals appear as if out of nowhere. There is a hidden element of luck that surrounds you and many people want to help you if you let them! New friendships formed this month could last a lifetime!

LEO (July 23-August 22): Your ideas shift towards long-term plans and goals. On your mind are large-scale plans or events that could be months in the planning. Like weddings, trips, moves and graduate degrees! Whatever it is that you decide to work on now, it will definitely happen! Love is in the air for Leo this month! Some of your suitors are made of gold... some tin penny. But they are out there in record numbers...definitely a month to get out and be seen!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec.21): With your ruling Planet Jupiter sextiling your Sun sign throughout 2005, against all odds you will succeed. If you suffer any breakups... it's almost sure you will reunite; if there is a past love you long for, go ahead reconnect, and most importantly make some great plans for your life this year! Mars transiting your solar 2nd house of money demands you get spending and earning under control. Avoid argumentative people and vice versa; avoid being argumentative! Change your goals to reflect more of who you are and what you believe in not what others expect of you or what others want for you!

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Your solar 10th house of career, reputation, honors and status is highlighted this month with the Sun, Mercury, Venus, Neptune and the New moon lighting the way. Like a light bulb illuminating a dark room and finally your purpose in life, your destiny, your chosen path are made clearer to you! This is very personal to each one of you. For some the highlight of their life could be to get married and raise a family; for others it's their chosen career path, and yet others it's to be respected by others. This month you will be closer to your ultimate goal!

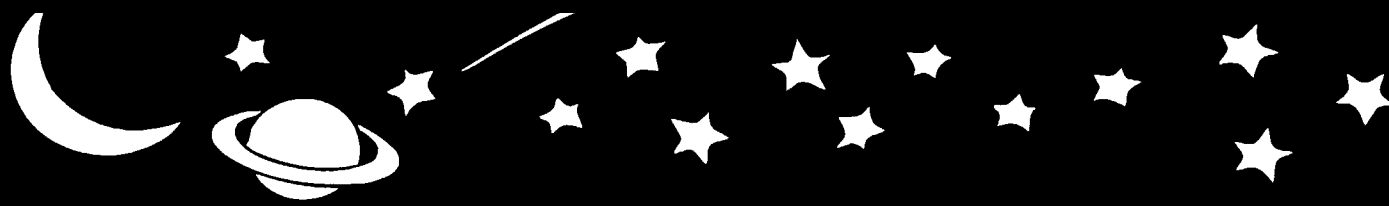

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): With all the personal planets in your 6th house which is ruled by your sign Virgo...you may be in the spotlight for some honors at work, or socially for charity work. Yours is one of the signs that definitely will feel the pull to help others. If you are single and looking for a Valentine, love can be found in your neighborhood. Meaning your intended probably lives close to you right now, so go to local restaurants, clubs or bars around your home!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 20): Mars transiting your solar 1st house is like that extra pizzazz that is sanctioned for your Sun sign only! It gives you presence; it makes others listen to you, not because you have the loudest voice but because they want to know what you have to say... they want your leadership. The only thing to avoid is being too bossy! Many of you may be thrust into such leadership roles...at work you may be made supervisor or manager. You may turn out to be the sole support or matriarch of your family...you may even become an authority on some subject of interest...that's your destiny over the next 2 years!
